Recitals

A. The Company is engaged in the business of leasing, acquiring, exploring, owning, operating, producing, developing, gathering, transporting, storing or marketing hydrocarbons in the continental United States of America, whether as owner, operator, joint venturer, transporter, gatherer or in any other capacity or role (the “Business”);

B. In compliance with its applicable bylaws, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement or other similar governing agreements (the “Governing Documents”), the Company and its duly constituted board of directors, board of managers, managing member or other governing body or persons (the “Company Managers”) have determined that effective operation of the Business of the Company requires the expertise and resources of the Manager;

C. The Company desires to engage the Manager, and the Manager is willing to provide or cause to be provided certain services to the Company, as described below and in accordance with the terms set forth in this Agreement.

Agreement

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set forth herein and benefits to be derived from them, the Parties agree as follows:

The Company hereby appoints the Manager, and the Manager hereby accepts such appointment, to provide the Services (as defined below) by and on behalf of, and for the account of, the Company, pursuant to and as set forth in this Agreement and in accordance with the Company’s Governing Documents.

(b) Independent Contractor. The Services rendered by the Manager shall be as an independent contractor. Nothing in this Agreement, and no past or future conduct of the Parties shall be construed to create a joint venture, partnership, or any other similar arrangement between the Company and the Manager, nor to authorize either Party to act as agent for the other Party, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, (a) neither Manager nor any affiliate, officer, employee or agent thereof shall be deemed to be an employee of the Company by virtue of this Agreement; and (b) nothing herein shall be deemed or construed to cause any party hereto to be responsible in any way for the debts and obligations of the other party hereto.

Any Company Property shall, except as otherwise agreed by the Company in writing, be delivered to the Company promptly upon the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

(a) Services. Subject to the general directions of the Company and the Company Managers as may be issued from time to time, the Manager hereby agrees to perform the following services (collectively, the "Services"): (i) conduct the day-to-day operations of the Company, including with respect to accounting administration, general administration and the ownership, maintenance and development of the Company's Business Assets (as hereinafter defined) and its Business; (ii) advise and consult with the Company regarding the Company's development and operations; (iii) provide management expertise and consulting services for the development and implementation of all operational and financial plans of the Company and for strategic decisions of the Company; (iv) provide the support necessary to assist the Company with any acquisitions or dispositions of assets, and financings related thereto, however structured, and in connections with any sale of the Company or its assets or equity; and (v) provide such management, support and administrative services with respect to the Business and such other services as shall be reasonably requested from time to time by the Company.

(b) Operatorship. Unless the Company and Manager otherwise agree, Manager shall be designated as the operator of record with all applicable governmental bodies with respect to the oil, gas and/or mineral leases and other interests of the Company arising from or pertaining to an oil, gas and/or mineral estate, and any interest of the Company in any applicable midstream equipment, pipelines, facilities or infrastructure used in the Business (collectively, the "Business Assets"), and Manager shall provide assistance to the officers of the Company in complying with all associated regulatory filings and compliance activities. The Company shall use reasonable efforts to name the Manager as the operator under all operating agreements binding on the Business Assets, provided that where the Company does not have the authority or required consent of third parties, the Company and Manager or an affiliate of Manager shall not be precluded from entering into a mutually acceptable form of operating agreement naming Manager (or one of its affiliates) as the contract operator of any Business Asset.

(c) Authority. Subject to the terms hereof, the Manager shall have the authority to, on behalf of the Company, perform the duties and obligations of the operator under all applicable operating agreements that cover and govern the operations of the Business Assets. Without limiting the foregoing, but subject to the terms hereof, the Manager shall have the authority to, on behalf of the Company (and in its name, except as expressly provided otherwise herein):

i. negotiate sales contracts with third party purchasers for any oil, condensate, natural gas liquids or natural gas produced by or for the account of the Company on such terms and conditions as the Manager reasonably deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company;

ii. cause the Company to execute and deliver any and all sales contracts, transfer orders, division orders and other instruments that may, at any time, be required by any purchasers of production for the purposes of effectuating the payment of the proceeds from sales of production;

iii. establish and maintain the books and records, including accounting, land, production, contract and other records and files necessary and appropriate for the proper conduct by the Company of its Business;

iv. monitor the receipts, income and expenditures of the Company;

v. assist in the preparation and filing of the schedules and tax returns of the Company;

vi. engage, coordinate, supervise and/or assist with the engagement of third party engineers, attorneys, auditors and other professionals and service providers to the Company in connection with the Business, including the delivery of the financial statements, tax returns and engineering reports;

vii. supervise, manage, direct and operate all aspects of the day-to-day management and administration of the Company with respect to its Business, including assistance in the sourcing and diligence of acquisitions of Business Assets and divestitures and management of the Business Assets, and engaging in business development efforts;

viii. interface with the third party operators and monitor the status of the operations conducted by such third party operators;

ix. negotiate, execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company, as its agent, contracts and other agreements or instruments pertaining to the Business, Business Assets or any Services;

x. interface with the Company's lenders, vendors, contract counterparties, and other third parties pertaining to the Business;

xi. file or cause to be filed all necessary or appropriate filings with federal, state and local authorities, including applications for permits, authorizations or exemptions;

xii. assist in filing and recording documents and papers as is necessary and appropriate to evidence the Company's ownership of any of the Business Assets;

xiii. give or receive notices, execute drawdown certificates, furnish required reports and information and monitoring compliance, or similar activities as required or permitted by any agreement binding upon the Company; and

xiv. perform such other acts which are necessary or appropriate to carry out its obligations hereunder;

provided, however, the foregoing grant of authority shall be subject to the terms and provisions of any agreement that the Company is a party to and shall not provide any power to Manager that would conflict with or be prohibited by the terms of any such agreements, it being understood that the presence of a term in an agreement and the absence in another shall not by itself be deemed a conflict.

(d) Proceeds and Invoices. All revenues and income of the Company shall be and remain the property of the Company and no such revenues or income shall be retained by the Manager. The Manager shall receive revenues, income and proceeds otherwise payable to Company and pay (or net) costs and expenses chargeable to the Company's interest from such revenues, income and proceeds, as part of its operations of the Business Assets and such amounts shall be administered, paid and distributed in the manner provided for in the applicable operating agreement governing operations for such Business Asset; provided, however, if there is not an applicable operating agreement for such Business Asset, then in a manner materially consistent with the terms of an AAPL 1989 Form Operating Agreement and the standards established by the Council of Petroleum Account Societies of North America (“COPAS”) in the COPAS 2005 Model Form Accounting Procedure. To the extent received by the Manager and not paid by Manager from Company revenues, the Manager shall promptly provide to the Company all invoices or bills for debt service, taxes payable by the Company, royalties, overriding royalties and other burdens on production, lease acquisition costs, goods, services, amounts payable under operating agreements, and expenditures related to the business of the Company to allow the Company to timely pay such costs and expenses.

3. Compensation; Reimbursement.

(a) Reimbursement of Qualified Costs. As its sole compensation hereunder, the Company shall reimburse (or advance, as provided in Section 3(c) below) the Manager for all costs incurred by the Manager on behalf of the Company to perform the Services, including lease operating expenses and capital expenditures allocable to the Business Assets or operation of the Business (collectively, the “Qualified Costs”). Without limiting the foregoing, Qualified Costs shall include general and administrative expenses of Manager to the extent allocated to the Company pursuant to Section 1, including labor costs, organizing costs, travel and entertainment and business development expenses, costs and expenses for professional services (including engineering, geological, land, geotechnical, and similar services provided by persons not employed by Manager), licensing and permitting fees and expenses, incremental capital expenses for furniture, fixtures, equipment, and vehicles that may be required for Manager to perform its services and obligations under this Agreement, occupancy costs, including telephone, rent, office equipment, insurance costs, and other similar costs and expenses generally considered general and administrative expenses incurred by Manager (collectively, “General and Administrative Expense”). At Manager’s option, the Manager may invoice the Company on a monthly basis for the Qualified Costs incurred and paid by the Manager from its own funds, and such Qualified Costs shall be payable by the Company within thirty (30) days following receipt of such invoice.

(b) No Other Compensation. The Qualified Costs shall constitute the sole and exclusive compensation owed by the Company to Manager for performing its services pursuant to this Agreement (but without limiting the release, defense and indemnification obligations hereunder), and (ii) any other amounts due and owing Manager, as operator of any Business Assets, shall be paid to, and shall be the sole and exclusive property of, the Company (subject to the allocations of property set forth in Section 1).

(c) Advances and Manager Account. It is not the intent of this Agreement for Manager to advance any of its own funds to pay any Qualified Costs. Except where Manager, in its discretion, uses its own funds to incur and pay Qualified Costs (subject to reimbursement as provided above), all Qualified Costs shall be paid from an account of Manager established and administered in accordance with provisions and procedures set forth in Section 2(d) above, and shall be funded by net revenues received by the Company or Manager to which Company is entitled and arising from ownership or operation of its Business Assets. If there are Qualified Costs to be paid or incurred by the Manager that are in excess of the funds in any such account, the Manager may provide a written cash call (“Cash Call”) to the Company of the amount of such Qualified Costs, which shall be promptly funded. If the Company does not so fund a Cash Call, the Manager shall have no liability or responsibility under this Agreement for any unpaid cost or expense, or any failure to perform any Service or other obligation hereunder, that results from or is related to the failure to fund the Cash Call or the insufficiency of funds in any account.

4. Term and Termination.

(a) Term. This Agreement shall be effective as of the date hereof and shall continue for thirty-six (36) months after the date hereof (the “Initial Term”). Upon the end of the Initial Term, and on each anniversary thereof, the term of this Agreement shall automatically be extended for one additional year from such date, until the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 4(b).

(b) Termination. Notwithstanding Section 4(a), this Agreement may be terminated: (i) by the mutual written consent of the Manager and the Company; (ii) by the Manager if the Company fails to pay any undisputed amount due to the Manager hereunder after 30 days prior written notice to the Company, and such amount remains unpaid at the end of such 30 days period; (iii) by the Company by the delivery of a written notice to the Manager that the Company elects to terminate this Agreement, and provided such termination shall not be effective until the date that is 30 days after the date of such notice or such earlier date set forth in such termination notice, (iv) at the option of Manager on the date of the closing of a sale of all or substantially all of the Business Assets or equity of the Company or (v) automatically on the conclusion of the liquidation and windup of the Company.

(c) Effect of Termination. Upon termination exercised pursuant to Section 4(b), this Agreement shall become void and of no further force and effect, except for the provisions that survive termination pursuant to Section 7(a), which shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

5. Ownership of Work Product and Confidentiality.

(a) Work Product. The work produced by the Manager under the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, all work papers, drafts, notes, reports, extracts and other written or electronic recordings developed solely in connection with the performance of the Services hereunder (“Work Product”), shall be the property of the Company. The Manager shall have no right or interest in any such Work Product, and may only use such Work Product to perform Services hereunder, all in accordance with the limitations, duties and obligations imposed by this Agreement.

(b) Confidentiality. The Manager agrees that all non-public information received from or otherwise relating to, the Company, its affiliates, members, or any third party who has entrusted the Company with confidential information with the expectation that such information will be kept confidential, is confidential and will not be, without prior written consent of the Company, disclosed or otherwise released to any other person except as reasonably necessary or appropriate, in the sole discretion of Manager, to perform the Services. It is acknowledged by the Company that the possession of confidential information of such Company by employees or representatives of Manager that also perform services for another Company shall not be deemed a breach of this Agreement.

6. Liability and Indemnification. The Manager shall not be liable to the Company, and the Company shall defend, indemnify, and save and hold harmless the Manager and its members, managers, officers, and employees (each, an “Indemnified Party”), from and against any and all claims, liabilities, damages, losses, costs and expenses (including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromises and settlements, as fines and penalties and reasonable attorneys’ fees and other legal or other costs and expenses of investigating or defending against any claim or alleged claim but excluding any liabilities for taxes of the Indemnified Party) that are asserted against such Indemnified Party arising out of the performance by the Manager of the Services pursuant to this Agreement (each of the foregoing, a “Claim”); provided, however, that an Indemnified Party shall not be entitled to indemnification hereunder to the extent such Claim arises from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Indemnified Party.

7. Miscellaneous.

(a) Survival. Sections 4(c), 5, 6 and 7 shall survive the termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms. Upon termination of this Agreement, all funds in the possession of the Manager belonging to the Company that have not been expended or previously contractually committed shall be returned to the Company. Furthermore, upon such termination, the Manager shall and shall cause each of its employees, agents and representatives to promptly deliver to the Company all Business records then in the possession of the Manager or such employees’, agents’ or representatives’ possession.

(b) Entire Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement embodies the entire understanding and agreement among the Parties for the provision of Services by the Manager to the Company and supersedes any and all prior negotiations, understandings, or agreements in regard thereto.

(c) Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE PERFORMANCE OF THE TRANSACTIONS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD REQUIRE THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

(d) Modification and Waiver. No waiver, amendment or modification, including those by custom, usage or trade or course of dealing, of any provision of this Agreement will be effective unless in writing signed by the Party against whom such waiver, amendment or modification is sought to be enforced. Performance of any obligation required of a Party under this Agreement may be waived only by a written waiver signed by a duly authorized officer of the Company or the Manager, as applicable, and such waiver shall be effective only with respect to the specific obligations described in that waiver.

(e) Notices. All notices, requests, or consents provided for or permitted to be given under this Agreement must be in writing and must be given by personal delivery, by certified or registered United States mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested), by a nationally recognized overnight delivery service for next day delivery, transmitted via electronic mail or by facsimile transmission, to the addresses given for that Party as set forth below or such other address as that Party may specify by notice to the other Party. All such notices, requests and other communications will be effective only upon receipt, except that if received after 5:00 p.m. (in the recipient's time zone) on a Business Day or if received on a day that is not a Business Day, such notice, request or communication will not be effective until the next succeeding Business Day. 'Business Day' shall mean a day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, on which commercial banks are open for business with the public in Houston, Texas.

(f) Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns; provided, however, that neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party. Any assignment in violation of the foregoing shall be void.

(g) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts (including facsimile counterparts), each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument, and the signature of any party to any counterpart shall be deemed a signature to, and may be appended to, any other counterpart.

(h) No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6, it is the intent of the Parties that no third-party beneficiary rights be created or deemed to exist in favor of any Person not a party to this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly agreed to in writing by the Parties.
